Department: Kinesiology

Position type: 1-year Term

Description

The Department of Kinesiology at DePauw University is seeking applicants for a one-year full-time faculty position beginning in August of 2022. A Doctoral degree at the time of appointment is preferred, while ABD will be considered. The teaching load is the equivalent of a 6 course (3/3) load adjusted for laboratory sections for AY22-23. The department specifically seeks candidates to teach our Human Anatomy and Physiology I and II course sequence. Additional teaching contributions are open to the candidate’s areas of expertise and may include courses in Motor Control, Biomechanics, Exercise Physiology, Muscle Physiology, Environmental Physiology, Exercise and Sport Psychology, or Strength and Conditioning. We especially seek candidates who will increase the department's commitment to inclusion, equity, and diversity through their teaching and mentoring and/or lived experience.

DePauw University is a leading, nationally-recognized liberal arts university dedicated to educating just over 1,600 highly talented, motivated, and diverse students from across the country and around the globe. Connected to the liberal arts college is one of the nation’s first Schools of Music. For 185 years, DePauw has created an atmosphere of intellectual challenge and social engagement that prepares students for lifelong success. Located in Greencastle, Indiana, about a 45-minute drive west of Indianapolis, DePauw is a member of the Great Lakes Colleges Association. DePauw has an ongoing commitment to diversity and seeks to strengthen our institution through equitable and inclusive practices. Please see this profile for more information about DePauw University.

Application Instructions

Candidates should submit the following through Interfolio: a cover letter summarizing qualifications, statement of teaching philosophy and interests, CV, evidence of effective teaching (such as sample syllabi or course evaluations), names of three academic or professional references, and graduate transcripts. Application materials should provide evidence of a commitment to successfully fostering and engaging with a diversity of ideas and experiences to create an inclusive environment in the classroom and at the University. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Please contact Brian Wright (brianwright@depauw.edu), Chairperson, Department of Kinesiology with any questions.
Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

DePauw University, in affirmation of its commitment to excellence, endeavors to provide equal opportunity for all individuals in its hiring, promotion, compensation and admission procedures. Institutional decisions regarding hiring, promotion, compensation and admission will be based upon a person’s qualifications and/or performance without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, age, gender, gender identity or gender expression, except where religion, gender, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification.
