Bastyr University appreciates your interest in employment at our vibrant private, non-profit institution. We invite applications for an adjunct faculty position to teach a remote/online 5-credit physiology course in summer quarter 2022. The course is offered for MS Nutrition students and includes lecture and lab. The quarter term is July 11-September 2. Since the class is offered remotely, faculty may teach from any location within California or Washington.

QUALIFICATIONS
Required qualifications include:
- Master’s or Doctoral degree in Physiology or related discipline
- At least 5 years of teaching experience

Preferred qualifications include:
- Experience with Canvas or similar LMS
- Experience with online laboratory exercises
- Experience with remote teaching using zoom

SALARY RANGE
The salary range for the course is $4000-$6000

ORGANIZATIONAL CULTURE
Bastyr is a small university with a strong community atmosphere. Our programs thrive on the enthusiasm and commitment of our faculty, administrators, and students. We value collaboration, creative thinking, and flexibility. Our faculty and students are passionate about health, food and nutrition, physical activity, environmental stewardship, diversity, equity, and social justice.

Visit www.bastyr.org to explore our university.

COMMITMENT to DIVERSITY
Bastyr University believes that inclusive diversity is essential for achieving academic excellence and creating a profoundly enriching university experience. We expect campus members to engage in respectful communication, self-reflect on personal behavior, learn about other cultures, and dismantle systems of oppression. Bastyr University is dedicated to the welfare of our students and patients as well as to promoting equal opportunity and access to education and health care. In alignment with Bastyr’s DEI commitment, applications from members of underrepresented groups are encouraged.

APPLICATION DETAILS
Please submit a letter of interest, a curriculum vita listing qualifications and experience, and a statement of teaching philosophy. Materials should be addressed to Lynelle Golden, Dean of the School of NHAS at lgolden@bastyr.edu.

EEO/AA STATEMENT
Bastyr University does not discriminate against any person in matters of employment, application for employment, student or applicant for admission, or participation in our programs or benefits on the basis of the following protected classes: ancestry, gender, gender identity, or expression, sexual orientation, race, creed, color, religion (includes religious dress and grooming practices), sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and/or related medical conditions), ethnic or national origin (includes language use and possession of a driver’s license issued to persons unable to prove their presence in the United States is authorized under federal law), age (40 and above), disability (mental and physical, including HIV and AIDS), marital status, genetic information, medical condition (genetic characteristics, cancer or a record or history of cancer), veteran or military status or any other protected category under applicable local, state or federal law. Our programs, services and facilities are accessible to individuals with disabilities. Please don’t hesitate to contact jobs@bastyr.edu to request or discuss a special accommodation due to a disability.

All applicants must prove authorization to work in the United States at the time of a position offer. Individuals must be able to perform the essential functions of the job, with or without reasonable accommodation. Any applicants requiring special assistance or an accommodation due to a disability during the application process should contact Human Resources at (425) 602-3087 (phone), (425) 602-3058 (fax) or jobs@bastyr.edu.