

Exhibitor Registration Form

Welcome to the American Physiology Summit

Join us in Long Beach, California, for the American Physiological Society's (APS) annual meeting, the American Physiology Summit 2024 (APS 2024). APS 2024 will be held at the Long Beach Convention Center April 4–7, 2024. Showcase your physiology research and education technology and services to the global physiology community.

The Summit offers you several ways to connect with attendees to share your company's story, demonstrate thought leadership in your field, educate the physiology community on your technology, and generate and nurture leads.

Please complete and return this form to reserve your exhibition space within APS 2024's centralized activity center, the PhysioHub.

APS 2024 Early Commitment Program

Confirm your intent to join us at APS 2024 before October 1, 2023, and save 10% on all exhibition and sponsorship fees.

Booth Location and Industry Presentation Timeslot Selections

The selection and availability of booth locations and timeslots for industry workshops and symposia are based on the chronological order of received exhibitor commitments.

Exhibitor Conference Registrations

Exhibitors receive two conference registration badges for every 100 square feet of exhibitor space reserved. Additional badges for workshop/symposium presenters may be granted on an individual basis.

Exhibitor Eligibility

The American Physiology Summit's exhibit program is designed to educate the physiological science community on the latest technology and services available to advance research and education. APS 2024 exhibits must be educational in nature and emphasize instruments, products or services for use in teaching or research.

Exhibition at APS 2024 is subject to approval by APS. APS reserves the right to refuse applications from entire categories of exhibitors, including, but not limited to, the consumer products and journal publication industries. At any time, APS reserves the right to refuse exhibitor applications not meeting standards required or expected, and the right to curtail or to close exhibits or parts of exhibits that reflect unfavorably on the character of the meeting. This applies to displays, literature, advertising, novelties, souvenirs, conduct of persons, etc.
